

2018 Community Grants Announced

Impact 100 Redwood Circle has awarded $10,000 to five local nonprofits in support of the outstanding programs they provide to our community. Our 2018 Community Grant recipients are:

- CATHOLIC CHARITIES will provide culturally sensitive emergency outreach assistance to help immigrant victims of violent crimes come out of the shadows and seek justice. www.srcharities.org
- CHILDRENS MUSEUM OF SONOMA COUNTY will provide hands-on, science-related learning and creative expression for children ages 10 and under through a new, Outdoor Learning Lab. www.cmosc.org
- ROSELAND COMMUNITY PREP CHARTER SCHOOL will provide essential college preparation experiences for students and their families, including college campus tours, adult mentors for juniors and seniors, and parent education workshops. www.roselandsd.org/RCP
- SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE FOUNDATION – CHILDREN’S CENTER will provide infant/toddler and preschool children of disadvantaged SRJC students with healthy meals to help minimize their food insecurity. <https://childdevcenter.santarosa.edu>
- SANTA ROSA SYMPHONY YOUTH EDUCATION PROGRAM “Simply Strings” will provide after-school music education to children in the Roseland area to foster academic success, emotional health and prosocial skills. www.srsymphony.org/Education-Community/Music-For-Our-Schools/Simply-Strings
